Re: United States v. Miguel Sierra-Marte & Mario Gonzalez
S3 06 Cr. 428 (SWK)

Dear Judge Kram:

The Government respectfully submits this letter to inform Your Honor that the Government has provided both defendants Miguel Sierra-Marte and Mario Gonzalez plea agreements in this case. Through their respective counsel, both defendants have indicated that they will plead guilty pursuant to the plea agreement. The Government and counsel for defendant Gonzalez are currently discussing scheduling of Gonzalez's plea in Magistrate's Court. Because of international travel obligations, Sierra-Marte's attorney has asked for additional time to review the plea agreement with his client. The Government consents to such additional time. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the pre-trial conference scheduled for April 16, 2008, be adjourned and the Court set a control date for May 14, 2008. The Government anticipates that both defendants will have pled guilty by May 14, 2008. Counsel for both defendants consent to the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act until May 14, 2008.
